Children and young readers books

How Children Begin to Learn to Read

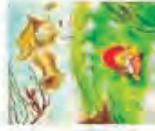

1. Hearing stories and seeing others read

2. Talking about the pictures in books

3. Joining in repeated phrases in a favourite book

"The wolf huffed and he puffed and he blew the house down"

4. Distinguishing between pictures and words

dog

5. Realising that words are read from left to right

6. Hearing rhymes and joining in with them as a book is read

"Humpty Dumpty sat on the wall
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall"

7. Making up strings of rhyming words

Cat, sat, mat, hat

8. Hearing the initial sounds of words

'C' for cat

9. Recognising letters from their name and matching to their sounds, then other letters

'T' 'o' and 'm' are in my name

11. Hearing the middle sound in simple words
e.g. the 'a' in cat

12. Putting 2 then 3 sounds together to make a word

13. Children will also learn some familiar words by recognising the shape of the word, for example their own name, shop signs, brand names

8 INSPIRING QUOTES ABOUT READING

"If you are going to get anywhere in life you have to read a lot of books."

Roald Dahl

"Once you learn to read you will be forever free."

Frederick Douglas

"A book is a device to ignite the imagination"

Alan Bennett

"Reading is a discount ticket to everywhere"

Mary Scmich

"Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body."

Joseph Addison

"There is more treasure in books than in all the pirates' loot on Treasure Island"

Walt Disney

"Books train your imagination to think big"

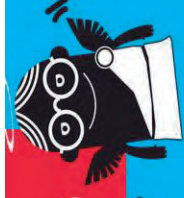

Taylor Swift

"Reading gives us some place to go when we have to stay where we are."

Mason Cooley

8 REASONS TO READ

Expand vocabulary and build communication skills

Understand different cultures and countries

Improve focus, concentration and memory

Boost your imagination

Become smarter and more successful academically

Make friends and connect with people

Travel through history and explore the world

8

Build life skills and empathy for others

Finding books they'll enjoy is vital for their reading development

Lector temprano (7-9 años)

- Usa los dibujos para confirmar el significado.
- Usa claves de los sistemas (relación letra-sonido, dibujos, estructuras lingüísticas).
- Demuestra automonitoreo a través de auto-corrección con estimulación (modelarles).
- Lee textos familiares fluidamente y con buena entonación.
- Lee libros más largos con letra más pequeña.
- Analiza palabras más largas con un poco de ayuda o de manera independiente.
- Comprensión inconsistente.
- Predicciones.

Estrategias para seleccionar textos para lectores tempranos

- Lenguaje un poco más predecible.
- Ideas más complejas.
- Oraciones que vayan más de una sola línea o que continúen en la siguiente página.
- Que incluya diálogo.
- Una historia con principio, medio y final.
- Ilustraciones sin importar tanto si tienen que ver exactamente con lo que dice o no.

WHAT DO THEY READ?

Most millennials read to be well-informed on a certain subject:
92% of them read to research a specific topic (compared to only 66% in the older groups).

It's not only textbooks. Millennials have repeatedly reported to like to read for entertainment as well.

In 2015, 43% of 18- to 34-year-olds read literature for entertainment (novels, short stories, poems, or plays not required for work or school), outmatched only by 65- to 74-year-olds (at 49%).

Contrary to the popular belief, millennials still prefer print books.

92% of college students prefer reading print books to e-readers.
